NINETEEN SIXTY FOUR

DAWN

This yearbook is intended to be a reminder of our activities in school. When its pages are yellow and dusty, we may open it and reminisce about the traditions of our school and the friends who helped us on our educational journey. Besides being a part of the past, it is a part of the future. Before the daylight, comes the dawn.

EXPOSE: BROCKWAY

This is the Brockway Area High School. A typical day in the life of a student is filled with activities of all sorts. The school day for the average student begins with the slamming of a locker door, (a loud crash if someone happened to set it), and a cheerful "Hi" from your best buddy as he walks down the hall with your best girl. Thus begins the typical day at B. A. H. S. The morning is filled with a great many insignificant things such as classes and tests.

Then comes the blessed lunch period, and with it comes the inevitable slaughter -- running to the lunch line. After devouring your lunch as if food were going out of style, you hurry to the dance area to discuss the latest "news" of the day. This time your best girl is twisting with your other best buddy. Oh well, C'est la vie! With a sigh, you walk very slowly to your sixth period class, but you feel a little happier remembering that you have a study hall seventh period, and that special gal sits in the next row. Sixth period is over, and you make a "mad dash" to the restroom to comb your hair so you will look "sharp" in study hall. That "one girl" just might glance your way. Sitting casually at your desk, you are stunned when that "certain girl" saunters into the room, smiles and asks, "Could you help me with my algebra tonight?" It is needless to state your reply. Feeling very triumphant, you finally get down to your studying.

The seventh and eighth periods slip slowly by. As the bell for closing the eighth period rings, you are again pushed into the hall teeming with smiling, cheerful faces of your friends. You say to yourself, "I'd better hurry so I can get the back seat on the bus!" The door swings open, and you are on your merry way home.

Now our school is quiet and still, but it gladly awaits the next morning when it will again be filled with the happy sounds of you, the teenagers. Yes, this is your Alma Mater . . . The Brockway High School.

BROCKWAY'S

Concentrate, Bobby!

Smile, you're on Candid Camera!

Friends, Romans, and Country-men . . .

You've seen our Senior Class looking very solemn and impressive in their Senior pictures. But now, let's look at them as they are in everyday school life. This class, as all the teachers agree, is a lively and fun-loving group of teenagers.

So now-here they are on these few pages, not as the mature and grave individuals they may seem to be to the underclassmen -- but as they really are.

MIGHTY SENIORS

How did you work number 2 . . . and 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8?

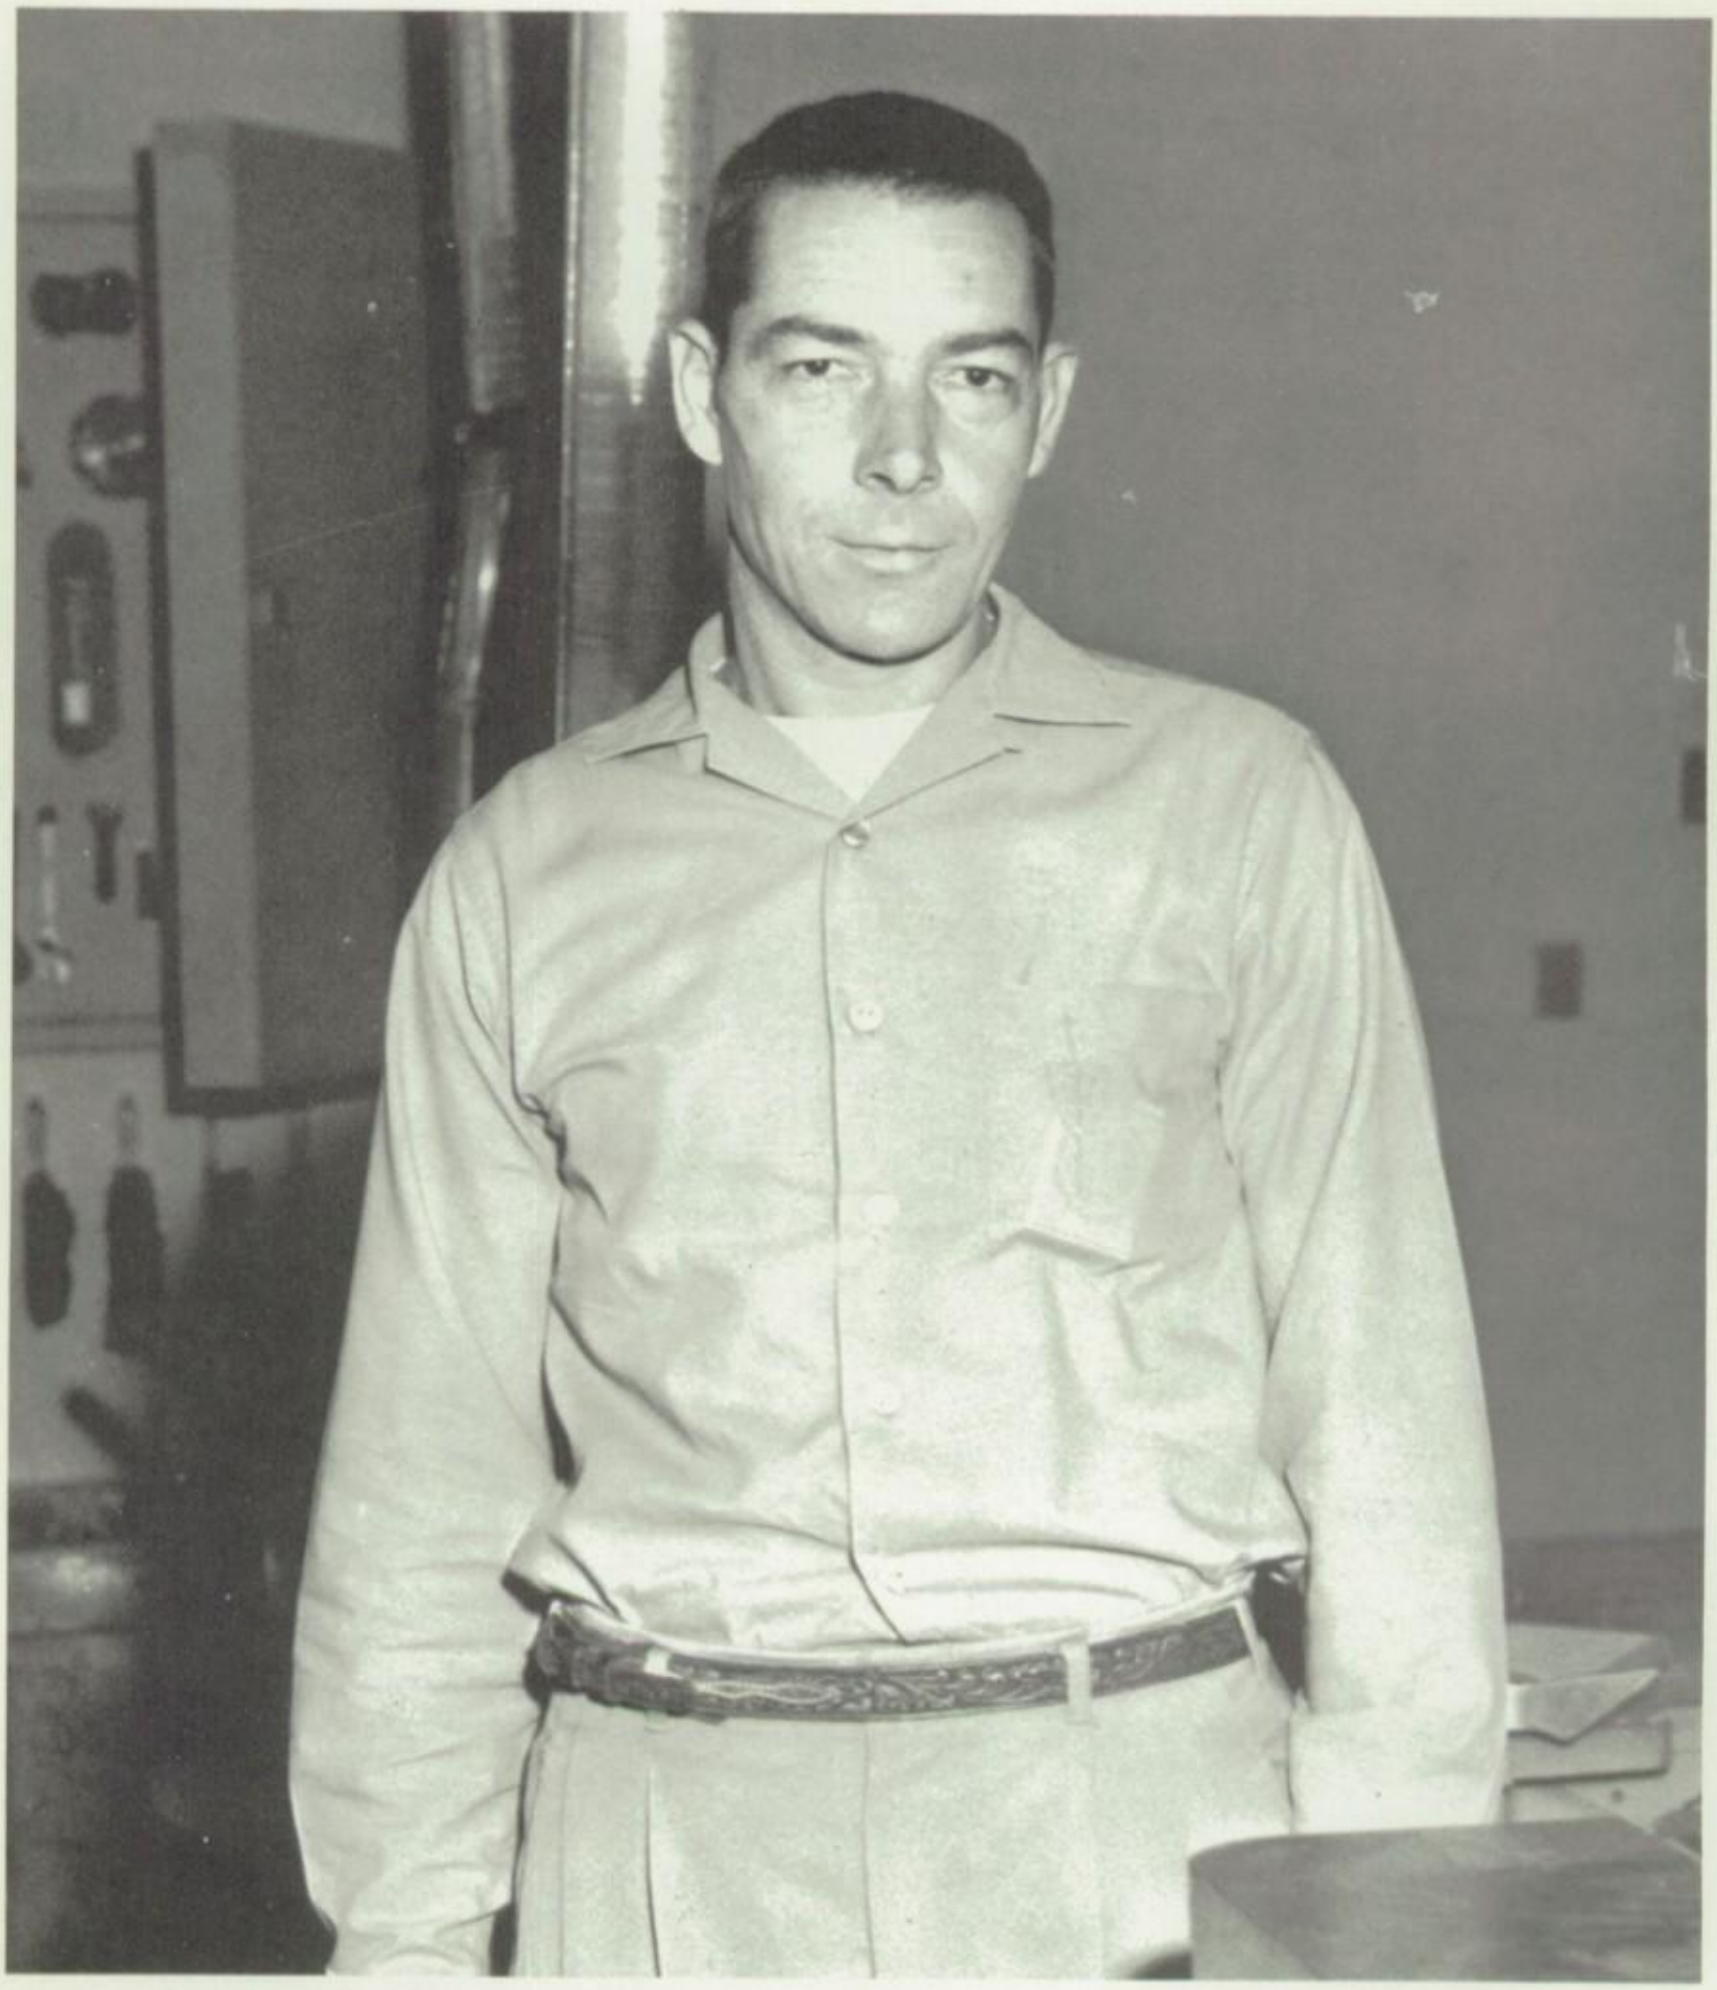
DEDICATION



To Mr. James Crisman, who for the past several years has taught Industrial Arts to a countless number of students in the Brockway Area High School. When our class, as Juniors, needed some experienced help in making an Eiffel Tower and a fountain for our prom, "Evening in Paris," you were right there helping in every way you possibly could. All who have been associated with you will, for all time, feel the deepest gratitude towards you for your efforts. Because of your assistance, patience, and pleasant attitude toward the students, the Class of 1964 wishes to dedicate the nineteenth edition of the Dawn to you -- Mr. James Crisman.

ATHLETICS 1969

SENIOR STARS

These ten seniors played football for Brockway Area High School this past season.

George Heatherdale, senior quarterback, played a very important role in the successful season. On and off the playing field, you will never see him without a smile and a friendly hello for everyone.

Our three senior ends, Dan Thomas, Tom Britton, and Wes Carnahan were always ready and willing to do a job. When Dan and Tom were on the field, you could bet your life that one of them would get the tackle on defense. As offensive end, Wes made many outstanding catches of passes thrown by quarterback George Heatherdale.

When the small yardage was needed, our husky linemen were called on to open the middle of the line. John Stewart and Les, offensive tackles, made it an easy task for the Rover backfield to utilize their running ability through the middle of the line. Defensive guard, Mike Veltri, the boy who kept the defensive line alive with his ill humors, always came through with a key tackle in a tight situation.

Paul "Buck" Remaley made several catches as an offensive end and made many fine throws in the end zone. Tom "Bugs" Bayer was the mainstay of the Rover defense, playing outside lineblocks; many times he came charging in to bring down the ball carriers, often throwing them for a loss in their own backfield.

These seniors can take pride in a job well done.

Coach Zoffuto's last Brockway football season and last Brockway varsity team was something for him to be proud of. The year was hard fought. The enthusiasm and the exceptional teamwork brought about the commendable 7-2 record. Much potential was shown by the bench with their capable support of the first team; this indicates a fine season for the Rovers next year.

S. Volk, G. Robertson, D. Steele, R. Himes, T. Britton, G. Morrison, J. Preston, J. McNulty, W. Carnahan, J. Stewart, A. Hilliard.

This year's Varsity made quite an impressive improvement over the 1962-63 season. The squad renewed the old school spirit which had somehow slipped away in previous years. The group of boys really enjoyed basketball and put everything they had into each game.

The Rovers are to be commended for a valuable win over Sheffield; this game was played at the small gym in Sheffield High School sixty miles from Brockway. Our squad was one of the very few teams to beat Sheffield in their gym. Another win that meant a lot to the team was our triumph over Central Catholic early in the season.

In their bright red blazers, our Rover squad received many favorable comments on their appearance everywhere they went. Although they were not the top team in the Allegheny Mountain League, the Rovers did a commendable job -- one the whole school can be proud of.

Manager: J. Fye, Coach: Mr. McNulty, Manager: R. Caruso.

SENIOR STARS

This year's Seniors composed most of the Varsity lineup. Heading the squad was captain Gary Morrison, who contributed his share of points and helped pull the team through many close decisions.

Next on the lineup was Wes Carnahan. Wes proved to be a very valuable player and was high point man for practically every game.

Steve Volk played an important role this season and contributed all his ability to make the Rovers victorious.

Ronnie Himes, another Senior, was always ready when the Rovers needed a little extra something to pull them through. Although he did not play in every varsity game, Bud Stewart was a fine shot and did his best. Closing out the Senior lineup were Dave Steele and Tom Britton. Although they did not see too much action, these boys contributed greatly to the team. Tom, one of the tallest boys on the Varsity, was always ready to help out in every game. Dave, the humorist on the squad, aided the team by lifting their spirits and doing his part in the games.

This impressive lineup of Seniors had a definite desire to win and did their utmost for Brockway Area High during the 1963-1964 season.

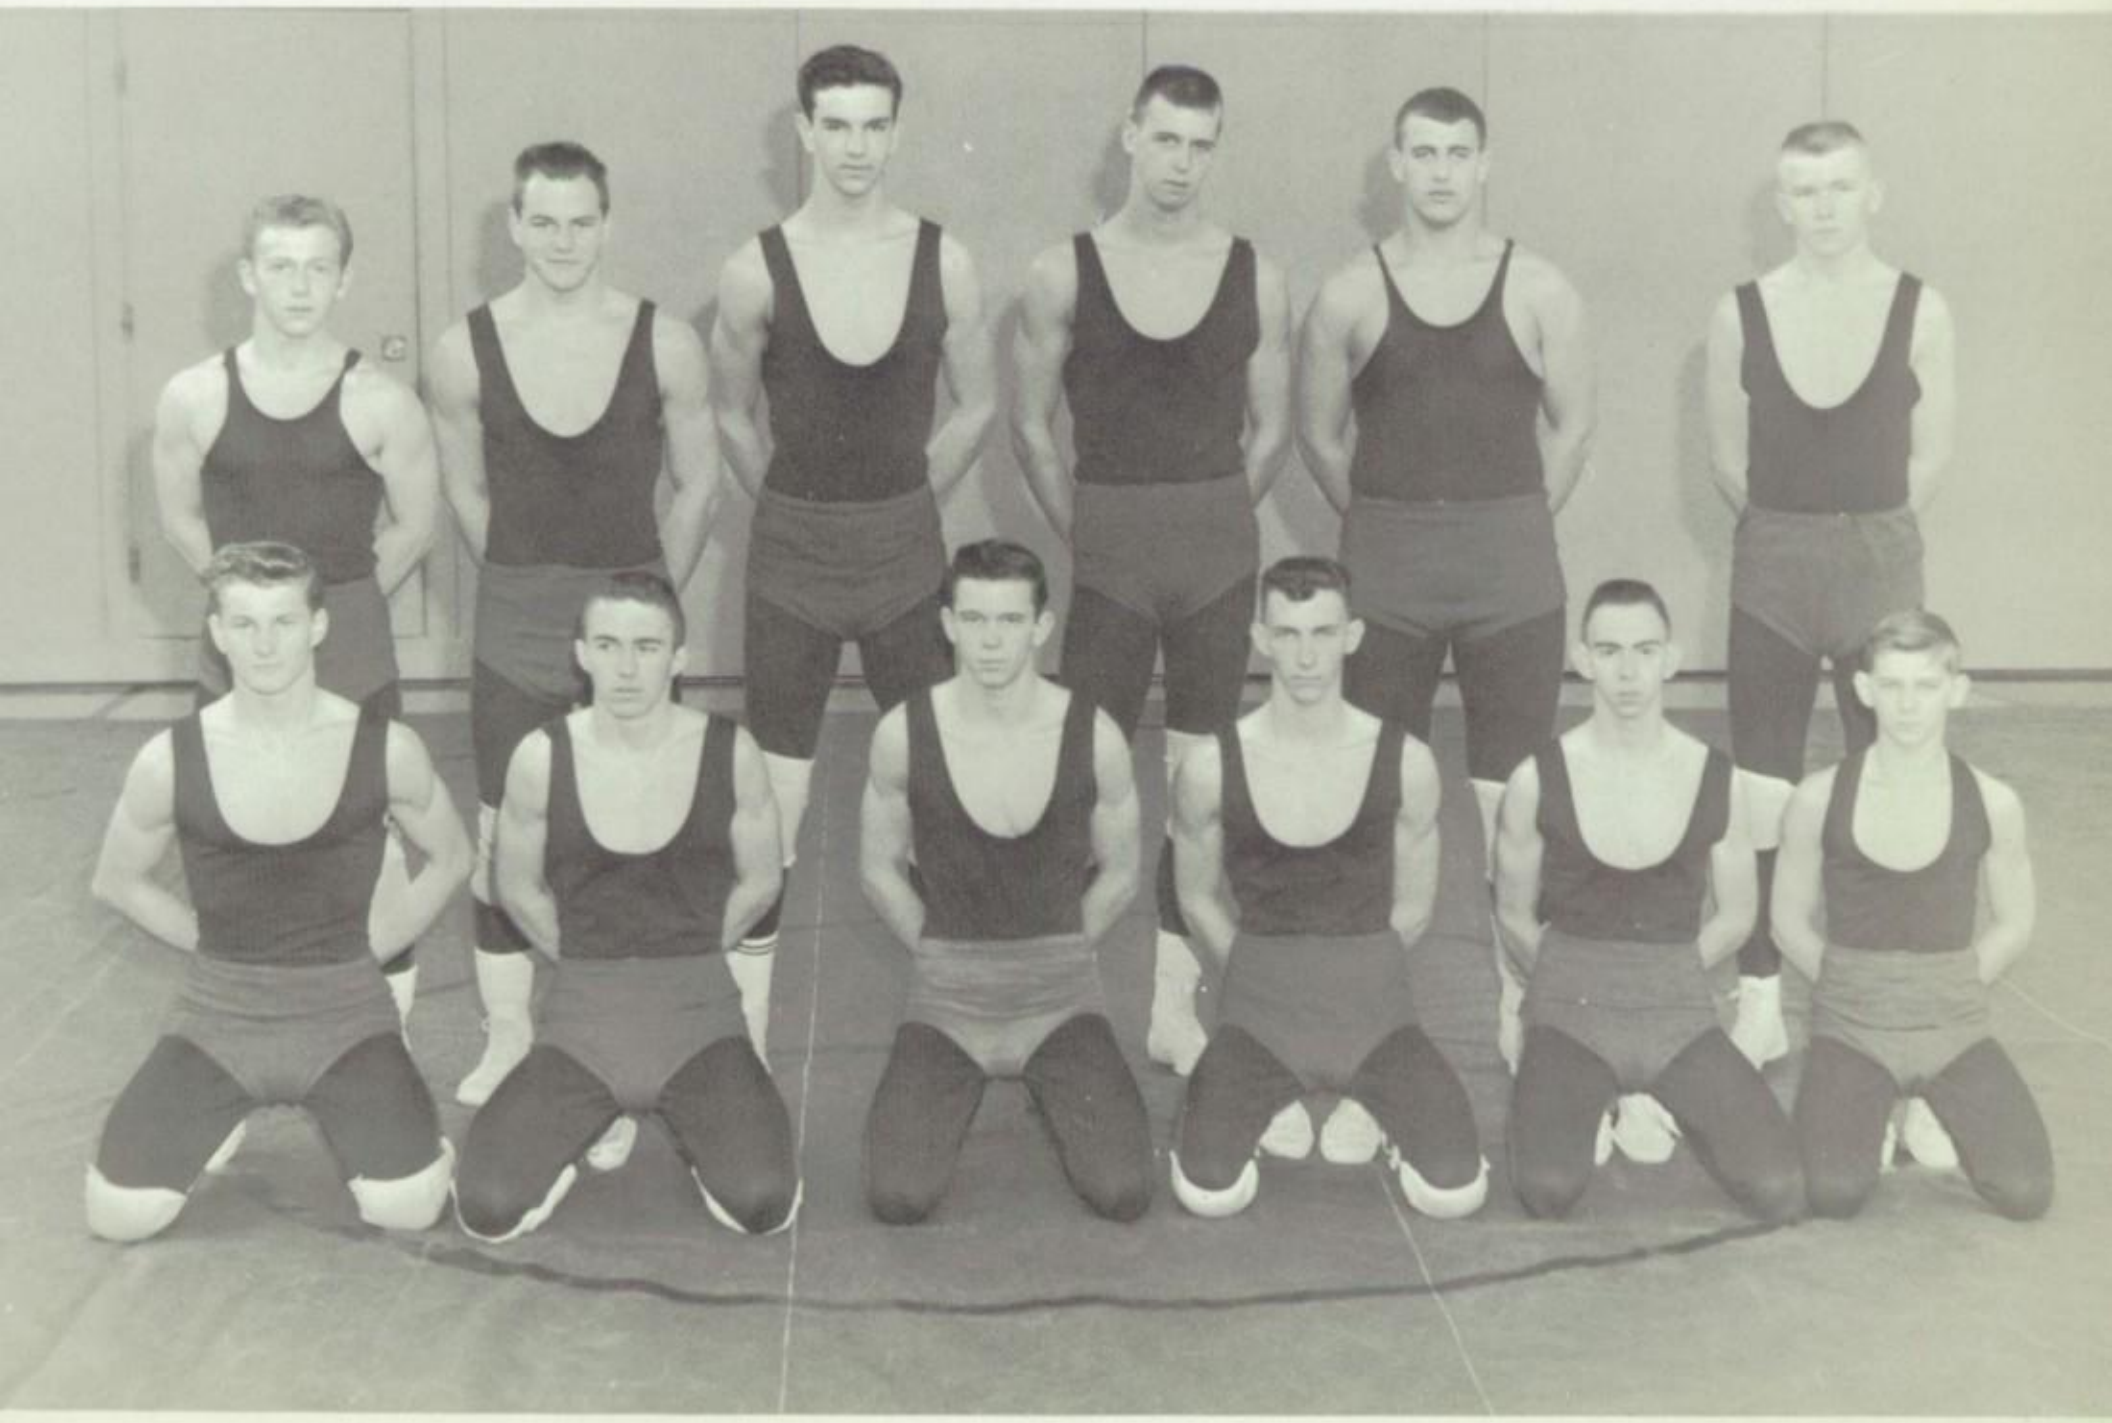
B.A.H.S. VARSITY WRESTLING

The Rover grapplers, under the capable leadership of Mr. Bertrand Riggle, the B.A.H.S. wrestling coach, soared to new heights this year, thus providing a pleasant surprise to their fans in the Brockway area.

Starting the 1963-1964 varsity season with a very close match, in which the Rovers lost 27-25 to Redbank, the grapplers quickly bounced back from defeat to overcome Ridgeway and Elderton. With each successful match, confidence and ability increased, and the spectators found themselves more and more often cheering wildly as Brockway pinned their opponents.

There were, of course, some defeats, but the boys refused to let these setbacks discourage them; the loss was accepted with good sportsmanship, coupled with a determination to win the next one -- and quite often they did. Both seniors and underclassmen proved they had not only the fundamental skills but also the drive and determination which are so necessary for success in any sport.

Although the four graduating seniors will be a loss to next year's squad, the underclassmen have shown they can provide formidable opposition to our area competitors. Judging by this year's performance, we feel it is safe to predict that the 1964-1965 season will find the matmen from Brockway going on to set new records.



KNEELING: T. Bayer, B. Thompson, D. Welsh, B. Daugherty, D. Weible, W. Shugars. STANDING: G. Giovannelli, G. Patton, L. Lockwood, R. Lundberg, M. Zoffuto, M. Shaffer.

SENIOR STARS

First in the senior lineup of grapplers is Bob Thompson. Bob, a veteran wrestler, is wrestling in the 127 weight class. All his opponents have found him to be a tough competitor.

Next in the squad, we find Bugs Bayer, better known as "Fireball" to his fellow wrestlers. Bugs also is a veteran wrestler and, as his nickname implies, really moves around and has lots of pep.

At 154 we have Gary Patton. We can always count on Gary for a few points when we need them most.

Unlimited wrestler for the Rovers is Mike Zoffuto. Mike, like his fellow seniors, has proven himself to be a powerhouse of energy combined with a keen mind.

On our Junior Varsity we find seven more seniors. Although these boys didn't make the varsity squad, they have proved themselves to be good wrestlers and tough competition for our varsity squad.

Manager, Les Sheley, as the wrestlers well agree, has done a fine job.

The J.V. Wrestlers, who compete in the preliminary bouts before the Varsity Wrestling Matches, help to keep the Varsity boys in tip top condition by challenging them in practice. The boys on next years Jr. Varsity Squad hope to be the future Varsity team soon.

J. V. BASKETBALL

D. Wales, J. Preston, R. Thompson, D. Salandra, M. Boucher, R. Hilliard, F. Crawford.

These J.V. players should prove to be promising material for the future varsity squad. Of course there were times when the team suffered defeat at the hands of their opponents, but the J.V.'s always seemed to bounce back from their defeats with more determination and spirit than ever before. At times it seemed as though you could predict victory for the varsity if the J.V.'s came through and won their game, since they were the varsity's moral support.

Enthusiasm?

The Rover pups finished a not too successful season this year. Although they didn't win a game, they gained helpful experience which may be put to use in future years. This, of course, is the object of junior high sports.

The team finished their season with a 0-6 record. This is a vast improvement over last year's 0-6 record. Coaches McNulty and Riggle are rather optomistically anticipating the coming season.

Even though the boys tried their best, they couldn't come up with a winning combination, due to the fact that they were usually outsized and outweighed; in general they were just too small. But through these defeats they are expected in future years to be able to prove themselves formidable adversaries for their opponents.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is an important organization in the school as it is the only real constructive link between the administration and the students. Members of the Student Council are elected by their classmates; the officers are elected by the student body. The Student Council, with Mr. James McElhatten as their advisor, sponsors many activities for the students. Among these are: dances, Homecoming, and May Crowning.

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club, a newly organized group in our school this year, is made up of members who were voted into the club this fall and of former C.L.S. members. As indicated by the name, the club's main purpose is to promote pep and spirit among the students of the school. The members purchased black sweatshirts with the words Pep Club printed in red on the front. They sat together behind the cheerleaders during the football, basketball, and wrestling contests and gave support to the cheerleaders in leading the rest of the crowd. The club has done much to add to the spirit of the students.

Each spring, girls are chosen from the ninth, tenth, and eleventh grades to become members of the Twirlers Club the following year. The majorettes and color guards are automatically members, since the purpose of the club is to support their activities. Each year the club has a few dances and bake sales to earn money. One fourth of all money earned is to buy props for the majorettes -- the remainder is used to finance club projects.

THESPIANS

Membership in the Thespian Club is acquired through accumulation of points. These points may be gained by participating in either the Junior or Senior Class Play or in assemblies held throughout the year; when enough points have been earned, an invitation is sent asking a student to join this club. An initiation is then held with an impressive ceremony taking the new members into the club.

This year the club, under the capable leadership of Mr. Doolittle and Mr. McElhatten, presented the Snowball Dance. The club hopes this dance will be an annual affair.

Participation in this club is in the hopes of furthering the dramatic interests of its members.

VARSITY B

This year the Varsity "B," under the able sponsorship of Mr. McNulty, again sponsored its annual variety show, which was considered a success by the club members. Interested members of the student body and members of the club who wished to show their talent took part in this show. The proceeds from this event are used for the purchase of jackets for the eligible senior club members who have earned a varsity letter in their senior year. The Varsity "B" boys in this club qualify for membership by earning a varsity letter in any of the sports in our school. This club was organized with the purpose in mind of encouraging young athletes in the right kind of sportsmanship.

The Future Teachers of America was organized to encourage the students to enter the teaching profession. Under the very capable leadership of Mr. Grant, the club attends many F.T.A. activities such as county meetings and regional and state conventions. The 63-64 F.T.A. Club sponsored the Homecoming Dance and a trip to Penn State for the club members. Future teachers observe regular school classes and their teachers in the grade schools, and they teach one day for the regular teachers in the high school. They perform a service for the school by ushering visitors through the school during National Education Week.

MARCHING BAND

One of the most accomplished organizations in our school is the Band. Under the direction of Mr. Routch, our Band excelled in all its endeavors this year. It is an organization of which the students should be proud; it is open to all from grades seven to twelve.

This year our Band made a splendid showing at Pitt University, and took part in various community and school activities such as: Christmas Assembly, Spring Concerts, County and District Band, Halloween and Firemen Parades, and Memorial Day services.

Deserving credit was our hard-working drum major, senior Dennis Cook or "Cooky", and our head majorette, senior Nancy Carlson. Both did a fine job in termination of their membership.

Every spring, girls from seventh through eleventh grades try out for Majorette. They are chosen on their ability in marching, strutting, and twirling.

After serving for a year as a sub, the girls are permitted to try out for the position of a regular majorette.

Being a Majorette is an honor, but it takes more time than many students realize. During football season they practice every night after school until 5 o'clock. They make up an average of three or four routines every two weeks.

PEP! PEP! PEP!

Presenting -- our six Varsity Cheerleaders in their new red uniforms. Heading the squad this year was Captain Karen Kane, who did a top-notch job organizing Pep Rallies and leading the cheers at the games. She was always leading cheers on the side lines and spent many long hours working for the squad. Connie Morrow, a peppy little blonde, added greatly to the group. Karen Fustine was one of the most loyal cheerleaders on the squad. A member of the Cheerleading squad since seventh grade, Mary Ann Greenalch turned in an excellent job. Next is Kay Larimer who is usually Heard above all the others and loaded with school spirit. Last but not least comes Pat Sheley, who is a fine Cheerleader because of her gymnastic ability.

Our girls cheered as many as three nights a week, but their pep and energy never seemed to end. We of the Dawn Staff commend you for a job well done.

AN EVENING OF ONE ACTS

Under the direction of Mrs. Sue McAllister the class of '64, as Juniors, presented their Junior Class Play. The play was presented two nights, and a matinee was given for the grade school children. Three one act plays were performed, each having a completely different plot and mood.

The first play, "Minor Miracle," told a story of four men stranded in the middle of the ocean on a raft, and their struggle for life. "Three on a Bench," the second play, was a comedy involving a teenage quarrel. An elderly widow whose prime enjoyment is patching up disagreements, arrives upon the scene. After much persuasion, she convinces the stubborn couple to forgive and forget.

The last of the three one acts was a tragedy entitled "The Wall." It told the tale of a resistance movement against the tyranny of a dictator in a South American country and the personal grief of those affected by the death of one of the rebel leaders.

The Junior class was very pleased to have a large turnout for both night performances of the plays. An Evening of One Acts was a great success and was enjoyed by all.

"Patokah Lindsay! Git yer lazy bones out of thet chair an' git inter Centerville t' see thet lawyer!" This was the opening line to the Senior Class Play, "Mountain Gal." It was the story of an orphan girl named DeeDee who lived on the farm of the Lindsays. DeeDee wanted to get an education and make something of herself. One day, a couple from the city named Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, delayed at the Lindsay farm, took a liking to the orphan girl and took her to the city to educate her.

The play was mainly a comedy but also had a more serious theme. The seniors and their directors, Mr. Doolittle and Mr. McElhatten, worked hard in the production of this play. Their efforts were greatly rewarded.

Elliot Ness and Company?

A display of coordination by the uncoordinated.

He really looked

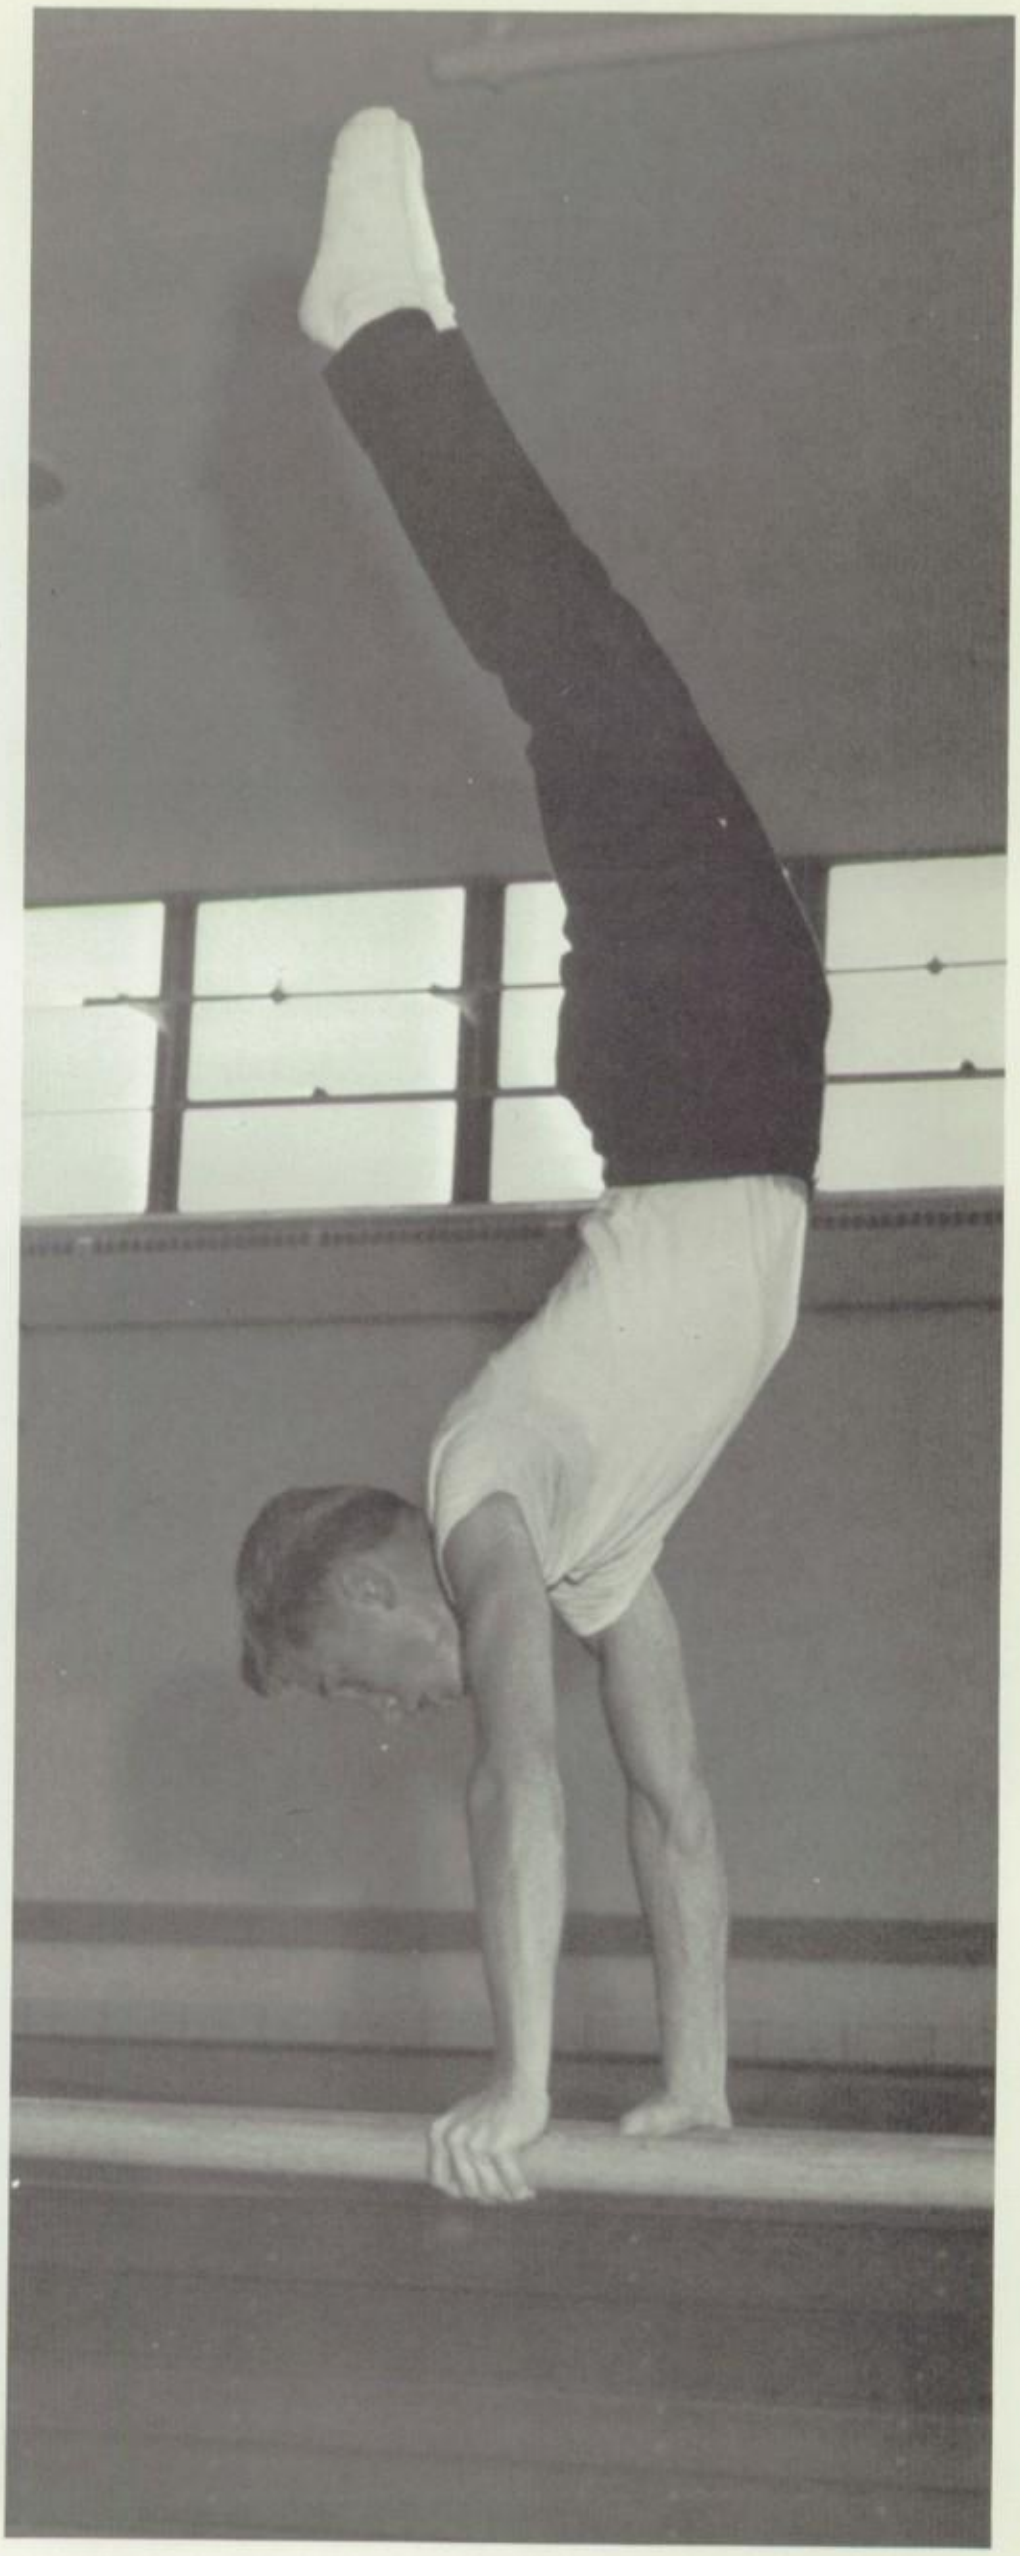
t me in class!



Careful, or you'll mess your hair up!

When I put the prestidigitator on here, you press the fern, "Bugs."

One of our most ambitious Seniors -- Mary Holt.

Senior corner -- loudest, gayest, and hungriest.

Meet Charles Atlas, II.

ALMA MATER

In a peaceful, quiet valley

Under skies of blue,

Stands our noble Alma Mater,

Glorious to view.

Lift the chorus, speed it onward,

Praise her to the sky,

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater --

Dear old Brockway High.
